P.S. Days no meat
P.S.S. whole

My Dear, Sweet, Baby, Lee,
Looking at all of your accomplishments this year I am extremely proud of you. Last night I was thinking of all the many ways you have helped me too. I love you and there is no end to my love. This summer is going to be great!
And I hope every summer from now on will be as good.

There have been some times when I was embarrassed because of things you have done but that is all in the past, I know it, you know it + everybody knows it, and I am proud of you (I can't say it enough)!
I know I have done millions of things to make you embarrassed and I am sorry but that too is in the past and I know that you still love me as much as I love you.

I don't know how you found so much to say in my book because I don't know what else to say. When I say I love you, I have said it all.

I Love you

Love ♡

ACADEMY

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Four years ago I became principal of Loma Linda Academy, the same time that this year's seniors, the Class of 1981, were freshmen. I want to congratulate the Senior Class of 1981, and I want to commend them for the contributions they have made to life here at Loma Linda Academy.

I would also like to say that everyone has the opportunity to contribute to society. A contribution can either be negative or positive. We don't have much choice as to whether we will contribute or not contribute. Our choice is whether our contribution will be for the good of mankind or will be destructive.

Let us each one contemplate our value and what we want to remember it for in the years to come.

The Lomasphere staff is proud to dedicate the 1981 Lonasphere to Pam Knight.

For her years of teaching us in the Jr. High of Loma Linda, and her year and a half of special guidance in the Academy.

Mrs. Knight . . .
This is for you.

Lea,

Academy has been really fun but it is finally over and we have to go on to college. I know college will be even better than Academy was. I sure hope the Academy can get enough guys to have a varsity next year so we can come back and play them. But we know varsity will go down hill since the class of '81 is gone. It is going to be a long time before we can come back together.

Hey Lee,

It's been fun this year, especially in bible exchanges, stories of you know who, and playing in intramurals settling and getting beat in the time.
Don't be too crazy this summer, living in your own place. We'll have to get together next new year and play cards again. Good luck in college next year especially with your roomies.
I hope you have only the best in life

Hey Pinko,
 Well when it is all over, we have done our time at CC it. We paid our price, and we are still the claysons we, we are so very nervous together or being smart asses (we started getting) named as our Freshmen year. Drenth class, on our stuff, then came our sophomore year we exploded like Dynamite, getting kicked out of all our classes, T.P. even sat right, r off T.P. at the Hospital, getting in fight with everyone, cutting down the damn tree, what was in our minds. What there was so much more.
 Then you had to go home away, but you came back for our senior year. Love have very (less) things this year. Backpacking the Brief
 Burning, leaving Snelly deposits on Dex's car.
 The Blue trip when you & (him) thought you were so sly. Next year we will be living together. Oh the ~~following~~ ~~car~~ in, trying to keep our sanity. Well have new great times. I hope you and Stan get everything you want out of your relationship. Lee, if you ever need a friend or bit to talk to.
 I'm always on ear. I know we can seem tough sometimes, but if we all are friends like the in of 81. It is always easy.
 Two summers we will have just caps on ~~for~~ at ACAC II. This is for helping we get the sub well all I can say is later. I'm always one of your B's

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

I Would Like to Thank:

Mr. Lucas—

for believing in me and giving me a chance when the odds were against it.

My Staff—

for tolerating me and staying when they felt like leaving.

Brad Hall—

for the work beyond photography and the willingness to get it done. Also, the rest of my editorial staff for their input.

National Studios and Mike Christman—for hanging in there with us, even on short notice.

AND,

Special thanks to all of our sponsors, advertisers, and silent supporters for their faith in us.

I hope the day never comes when the people with the dreams and the desires withhold their talents, or are kept from using them for whatever reason. Without these people, the annual would be just another book.

We hope all of you enjoy this yearbook, its been an experience making it.

Go for it! Class of

This first year hasn't been all that bad.

We've survived the rowdies of '81 who were SAD.

We have to go through this next year with '82.

We'll make it no matter what they do.

The class of '83 may think
they'll shine,

But they will

Barty hid his key! It was so funny, also sliding back and forth on the bleachers. really you're becoming a stranger!

On a dark and dreary Loma Linda day,
 The skies were ordered a fiasco to play.
 But alas, as the thunder rolled over to rumble,
 All he could utter was a frail, deadpan grumble.
 When the lightning arose to bolt through the sky,
 Its shoots looked like spaghetti, limp and shy.
 The black clouds renoun for their murky chill,
 Succeeded only in stirring a bland-colored swill.
 As the feeble concoction passed o'er LLA,
 The powers that be commanded a stay.
 "Look!" they each cried, "At that awesome force, Imperiously ruling; we must find its source!"
 Moving in closer, they soon could see,
 The marvel of '81's vivacity.
 An SOS was swiftly dispatched,
 To officers of that spiritfuf class.
 "Oh please, we extreat, have compassion on our plight!
 Our panorama's diluted, our lightning lacks fright,
 Our trumped-out thunder barely reaches a hum,
 Our once-violent wind is merely frolicsome.
 Could we not siphon just a drop of your zeal?
 We know it would spur us to heights unreal!"
 The Class of '81 smiled and said,
 "It's yours for the asking, you needn't have plead.
 Our well spring of spirit's abundant and rich,
 You're truly welcome to come over and snatch."
 With a resounding blast and a flourishing quake,
 The thunder clamboured; the sky was awake!
 Electric tendons tore through the air,
 Wind sent water whooshing: Earthlings beware!
 So powerful and piercing the pandemonium,
 That its story will spread for a millenium.
 From far and near they came each day,
 To grasp a petal of the life bouquet.
 The farthest traveler was a unicorn who came,
 For a bit of spirit to help hold his fame.
 The pitiable class of '82, so stale, flat and rapid,
 Was never once noticed, their demise rapid.
 (Although it was rumored that the billowing smog Got its vile vibes from the '82 nog.)
 So when ere you feel a tantalizing rush,
 Of energy and life, so vibrant and plush,
 You'll know whence it came and give a nod,
 To the unrivaled glory of a youth blessed by God

The Charismatic Class of 1981!
